BETWEEN NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF
TECHNICAL TEACHERS TRAINING AND RESEARCH (NITTTR), CHANDIGARH
AND KHALSA COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY, AMRITSAR (PUNJAB)

1. PREAMBLE

National Institute of Technical Teachers Training and Research, Chandigarh (hereinafter referred to as NITTTR, Chandigarh) was established in the year 1967 by Ministry of Education, Government of India with several objectives viz. training teachers of polytechnics and Engineering Colleges through different types of courses, fostering and promoting research in improving classroom and laboratory instruction, preparing and supplying teaching aids and instructional materials, associating with other academic bodies of technical education to achieve quality improvement in academic programmes, collaborating with institutions and organisations in India and abroad having similar objectives and functions, and interacting with industries in formulating training programmes and undertaking projects of mutual interest.

Khalsa College of Engineering and Technology, Amritsar (herein referred to as KCET) approved by AICTE and affiliated to I.K. Gujral Punjab Technical University is a progressive institution in Punjab, set up to promote the highest standards of technical education in the state. Khalsa College of Engineering and Technology, Amritsar is accredited by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Bangalore with Grade 'A'. KCET is part of the prestigious Khalsa College Charitable Society Amritsar, established in 1892 under Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860 as a non-profitable, non-commercial, charitable society. It offers Graduate and Post Graduate programmes in various disciplines of Engineering & Technology, Management and Paramedical Science. The institution aims to develop manpower that will meet the requirements of the world of work by developing necessary competencies in them through the education. The main activities of the KCET are as follows

- To undertake graduate (degree) programme in different fields of engineering, Management, and paramedical Science.
- To undertake post-graduate program in paramedical Science.
